

Hungary Agrees to Exchange

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Dec. 6 (AP)—The Hungarian Government has agreed in principle to exchange some of its Slovak population for Hungarians whom Czechoslovakia wants to repatriate, Deputy Prime Minister Vilem Siroki of Czechoslovakia said at a press conference today. The exchange is subject to negotiation by Hungarian Foreign Minister Janos Gyongyosy, now here.

The New York Times

Published: December 7, 1945

Copyright © The New York Times